

Directions to VectorCommand

(Stansted House)

Stansted House/Stansted Park is well signed by brown tourist signs from the A3 through Rowlands Castle and the A27 through Havant. Both routes are marked with a dotted line on the above map.

From London and M25

Take the A3 south from junction 10, M25. Leave A3 at Junction 2, signed Emsworth/Rowlands Castle, B2149. Follow brown tourist signs. At double roundabout (1½ miles) take the turning onto B2148 at the second roundabout. Turn left (1 mile) signposted Funtington and continue following brown Heritage signs, then Stansted House/Stansted Park signs.

From South Coast M27/A27

Leave A27 east of Portsmouth at exit signed Havant/Hayling Island, B2149. Turn north into Havant, following brown Heritage signs. After the petrol station on right hand side (1 mile), following brown signs, turn right at the traffic lights. At staggered cross-road (1 mile) go straight across B2148, signposted Funtington still following brown signs, then follow Stansted House/Stansted Park signs, left.

From both directions

Ignore the main entrance signed "Stansted House and Garden Centre" at the first Lodge House. Continue ½ mile and turn next right into the estate at the second Lodge House, signed "Stansted Offices". Park in the main visitor car park in the designated area. Disabled parking is provided. The entrance is at the front of the main building at the pillars.

Trains to Havant

From London Waterloo to Havant on SouthWest Trains, Portsmouth line. Allow 1½ to 2 hours. Taxis are available at Havant station. For a train timetable, visit: www.southwesttrains.co.uk For national rail enquiries, call: 08457 48 49 50.
